

Diablo II: Lord of Destruction – Item Charts - Helms

Experts consider the head to be the most important part of the body. Without protection of some kind, one could easily be separated from this vital extremity. Helmets ensure that such an event is unlikely as possible. From simple leather caps to royal crowns, helms offer protection from the harsh realities of combat.

Circlets

Circlets are Helms that can have Magical Prefixes and Suffixes that you would not normally get on a Magic or Rare Helm. They also allow players to have the "hatless look" which will allow an Amazon, for example, to play with her hair showing.

Magic Level

Circlets have a special magic ability which allows players to receive a higher level magical Prefixes and Suffixes on Monster Drops and when Gambling on Circlets. This bonus only applies to the bonuses that appear on Circlets themselves. This does not help generate better Magic Prefixes and Suffixes on other items. So when you receive a Circlet via Gambling or a Monster drop the Magic Level helps increase the chances that a better Magic Prefix or Suffix will appear on it.
